

ESJUBERG

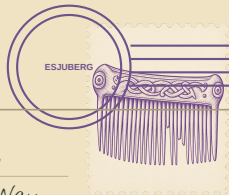

ICELAND

POST CARD

Her brother Helgi met her here and offered her a place to stay – she turned him down and pushed on to build her own. I like her better for it every time I read it.

One more thing, if you've still got that reading from Dogurdarnes. flip it. Whatever you're holding right-side up isn't the answer – upside-down is.

With love,
Aunt Liv
