

BJARNARHÖFN

ICELAND

POST CARD

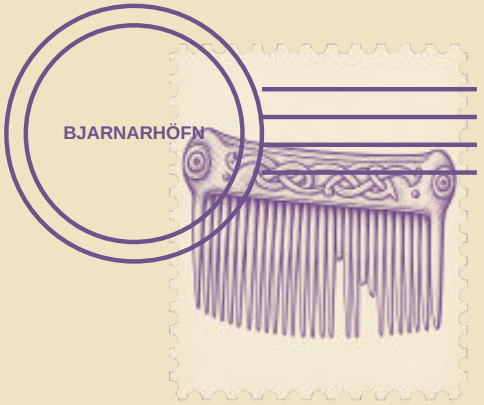

At her brother's harbor – the one Aud wintered in.

I've read everything I could find about her this trip, to the point that she feels like family (and she actually maybe was).

It was so awesome to find that comb alongside the coins, and the museum let me keep it!

This is actually the real treasure, a piece of history that we can use!

With love,
Aunt Liv

FUN FACT

Bjarnarhöfn is famous for hákarl: Greenland shark fermented, then hung to dry for months. It smells exactly as bad as it sounds.
