

OSLO

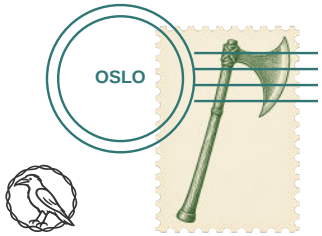

NORWAY

POST CARD

I'm spending a whole week in Oslo, so much to do!

It's Harald's city – so much Viking history. Found the quirkiest little museum near the harbour, all about hnefatafl, the chess-like old board game the Vikings loved and that we used to play with our own rules when you were younger. Grabbed you a little souvenir from the gift shop so you can try – can you get the King to escape in exactly 4 moves? Each round, a dark piece moves first, as my notes show, then the King. Count how far he travels each time. I've set up the board for you, good luck!

Love,
Aunt Liv

FUN FACT

King Harald Hardrada established Oslo as a designated trading place. It was renamed Christiania for centuries before finally returning to the name Oslo.
