

BATTLE HARBOUR

NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

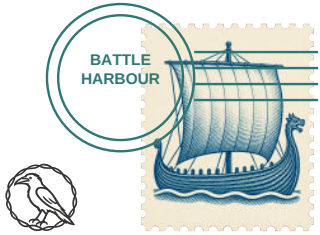

POST CARD

Markland today — 'Forest Land' in the old sagas, and they weren't exaggerating, it is gorgeous! Trees for miles, beautiful light and no one around. No wonder Leif's crews came here for timber.

The sky here is enormous, though somehow it always looks half finished.

Still, you'd love it here.

Love,
Aunt Liv

FUN FACT

Markland means “Forest Land”: the Norse came here for timber.

Image adaptation: "Battle Harbour - MacGillivray" - Matt MacGillivray, CC BY 2.0.